Marine Bunker supplies

Martechnic bunkering ltd was established in 1984 with global activities in marine lubricants and bunker fuels. Today Martechnic Bunkering are participating in a number of affiliates which were established to cover the market, giving all their clients the best obtainable prices in coordination with top quality products.

They supply branded names of Marine lubricants through the Major Oil Companies and are lubricating exclusively a significant fleet consisting of Greek owned vessels. Martechnic's customer's trust of their reliable and efficient service, together with very competitive prices of lubricants worldwide, is transformed to an increasing volume of their annually delivered lubricants.
